Dear Chris,

I wanted to write to you officially to thank you and your team from Norwest for all the work that they carried out for the Vancouver 2010 Winter Olympic Ceremonies.

Your crew's continued patience, dedication and determination made these Ceremonies so successful.

It was your team's hard work that helped get us over the extremely challenging technical demands and schedule for which I'm especially grateful. I also greatly admired their continued respect and composure for each other even when we were all up against it.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure to work with you all and you should be extremely proud of what you achieved.

My deepest thanks
